

Privacy statement

This Privacy Statement applies to the collection and use of personal information by Maritime Rig Services AS (MRS). Here you will find information, among other things, about what personal information is collected, what it is used for and what rights you have. MRS with the general manager, is responsible for the processing and can be contacted should there be any questions. Contact information can be found on our website.

The purpose of the information obtained is:

- To fulfill current agreements with you
- To be able to provide access to our products and services
- To be able to send relevant information
- To be able to contact and offer our products and services

We create profiles on the basis of the information obtained and the profiles are based only on information that you voluntarily give us. We do not collect information from third parties regarding this .

The type of information being processed

When we establish contact with you, or you establish a customer relationship with us, we register the following information:

- Name
- Phonenumber
- Email
- Company
- Organization number
- Company address
- Zip code
- City
- E-mail address for invoice, if any.

The registration of this information is a prerequisite in order for a customer relationship to be completed. The processing takes place on the basis of an agreement with you.

In connection with purchases and inquiries, we will also store:

- Purchase history, including the type of item or service you purchased and when you purchased them
- Service status, service history, complaints and repairs.

The processing of this personal data takes place on the basis of a balance of interests. We have implemented it as to help you with questions and assist you after purchasing a product or service from us.

Cookies

The website uses "cookies" - text files that are stored on your computer, and is intended to recognize, remember settings, perform statistics and possibly targeted ads. Cookies can not contain malicious code such as virus.

Cookies are used in an anonymised form. You can prevent cookies from being stored by changing the settings in your browser. You can also delete stored cookies from your hard drive. However, this may mean that you do not get the full benefit of the functionality of our websites.

Storage of personal data

We do not disclose your personal information to others beyond what is mentioned here:

If we have entrusted the operation of the website or parts of it to a service provider, we will be able to give this service provider access to store and use your personal information, but only to the extent necessary to provide the service. In that case, we will have a service provider with a binding data processor agreement with acc. GDPR.

We do not sell your personal information to others, and we do not disclose your personal information to others for marketing purposes without your express consent.

MRS has established rules and routines for the protection of personal data and privacy in accordance with the requirements of the GDPR, and we have routine risk assessments and internal audits.

Change of privacy statement

This Privacy Statement may be updated periodically. The updated terms take effect immediately upon publication. Your use of our website is thus regulated by the version published at the time of use.

Rights and deletion of registered information

If we process personal information about you, you have the right to access this information, and you have the right to request adjustment or deletion of the information. In that case, we will ask for confirmation of the identity for verification.

We do not process and store information about you longer than necessary for the intended purpose or for what is required under agreements entered into, and not beyond the scope of the law.

If some of the information is also stored in a backup file, it will in some cases take a little longer before everything is deleted, as in most cases it is physically impossible to delete only individual details from a backup.

Where the processing of personal data is based on consent, you can withdraw the consent at any time.

If you believe that we have not complied with your rights in accordance with the Personal Data Act, you have the right to complain to the relevant supervisory authority. This is done by sending a complaint to the Norwegian Data Protection Authority, contact information is available at www.datatilsynet.no.
